

Native News Update February 3, 2010 (TV)

The latest round-up of News From Indian Country on the Native News Update from the studios on the Lac Courte Oreilles Ojibwe Reservation at Reserve, Wisconsin with host Paul DeMain and stories on dismissed murder charges against John Graham, the Coeur d'Alene Indian Tribal Cooperative Law Enforcement Act, a state trooper cleared after an incident during a traffic stop, an agreement to help preserve Nine Mile Canyon's rock art, the Navajo's help effort after the winter storms, the Smithsonian's exhibit for Indian Servicemen who used their native language to relay messages, and the Remember the Removal project is looking for bicyclers.

This is the latest Edition of the Native News Update. You can be notified of the latest Native News Update and other Programs by going to Twitter at nfvnews and/or becoming a member of Facebook at Group Account News From Indian Country where the program can be seen from your own account.

The other Livestream website with continuous loop players and old file indexes, and featured programs can be found at IndianCountryTV.com. Also, if you like to view the material from Youtube the url is here: Skabewis.

Latest Native News Update Program

```
{youtube}<object width="425" height="344"><param name="movie" value="http://www.youtube.com/v/cayPdoYwzMs&hl=en_US&fs=1"></param><param name="allowFullScreen" value="true"></param><param name="allowscriptaccess" value="always"></param><embed src="http://www.youtube.com/v/cayPdoYwzMs&hl=en_US&fs=1" type="application/x-shockwave-flash" allowscriptaccess="always" allowfullscreen="true" width="425" height="344"></embed></object>{/youtube}
```

{rawcontent 6}

{rawcontent 4}